

American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education

The following organizations are eligible for affiliate membership in the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE):

- Not-for-profit, 2-year or 4-year, degree-granting foreign institutions of higher education
- Not-for-profit companies, organizations, state education associations, regional education laboratories, university-based research or policy centers, schools or other not-for-profit educational associations
- For-profit organizations, associations, agencies, centers, corporations or commercial companies
- Educator preparation programs operated by state agencies, regional/county education service agencies, or public school districts

American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education

The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) may appoint two individuals from their organization to serve as a chief representative and institutional representative.

The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) may appoint two individuals from their organization to serve as a chief representative and institutional representative.

The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) may appoint 2-10 individuals from their organization to serve as a chief representative and institutional representative, based upon their employee size.

All representatives and contacts for the organization must be employed by the organization and have an email address that aligns with their domain name.

American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education

- Discounted conference, meeting, and webinar registrations
- Complimentary online subscriptions to the Journal of Teacher Education, Policy Talks, and Ed Prep Matters
- Access to the members-only community, Connect360
- Member discounts on AACTE mailing lists
- Eligible to serve on a committee

Application

---

---

---

---

